• This is the third and last edition of the Argo. We are sure some of you thought you would never get it, but because of the great discouragements we are equally sure that sometimes the staff did not care whether you got it or not.

• We thank you for your toleration of our "new-fangled" idea, and hasten to reassure you that next year's editor, Earl Hite, has very emphatically told us that the Argo would not be in three editions.

• Roller skating is a popular spring sport at Westminster, and why shouldn't it be? It's good exercise and it's filled with dash and thrills. Here we find four of the girls swinging past the South Terrace, no doubt on their way to Isaly's or the "Inn" for a milkshake.

1936 MAY QUEEN

ON FACING PAGE: Miss Beverley Blythe, who is a member of Alpha Gamma Delta Sorority, and whose home is in Charleroi, Pa., was the May Queen of the college for the year 1936. She was crowned at the regular May Day ceremony on June 6. TO THE RIGHT: Here we have a picture of the crowning. Miss Blythe is the kneeling figure. The standing figure is Miss Isabel Reed, Alpha Gamma Delta, who was last year's Queen.

E

• In the large picture we have a view of the first part of the graduates' procession on the June Eighth Commencement. In the insert on the facing page we have a picture of the Rev. Dr. Ralph B. Davis, commencement speaker in action.

JUDGING from the fact that it stormed terrifically in the midst of their commencement, the class of 1936 might be deemed unlucky----at least unlucky enough to get wet.

• Their commencement was held this year partly on the South Terrace, and partly in the First United Presbyterian Church. The Reverend Ralph B. Davis, pastor of the Church of the Covenant, Erie, and the commencement speaker, was just getting nicely started in an excellent address, when the first splattering drops of rain sent the audience scuttling to the shelter of the church. There the Reverend Davis finished his address, the diplomas were given, and scholarship awards made. This class was the largest ever to have been fortunate enough to pass from the halls of Westminster.

• We do not really believe that the rain made a particle of difference in determining the class's good or bad fortune, and may we join with the few who have read thus far in this article in asking Allah to shower blessings and happiness upon your somewhat dampened figures and figurettes.

THEATRE

SCHEDULE: October 18, 19: The Finger of God---Percival Wilde, Murder in the Town Players---Helen Hines, Gratitude (a black-out), The Torchbearers (Act II)---George Kelly. November 21, 22, 23: Trifles---Susan Glaspell, Overtones---Alice Gerstenberg, Town Hall Tonight. February 19, 20, 21: Rossum's Universal Robots---Karel Capek. March 25, 26, 27: The Wandering Scholar from Paradise---Hans Sachs, Such a Charming Young Man---Zoe Akins, The Dark Lady of the Sonnets---George Bernard Shaw. May 6, 7, 8, 9: Icebound---Owen Davis.

• Miss Nora Mangus and Mr. James Goodrich played two of the leading roles in Icebound. Here we have them 'on the lot.'

• At the end of Act III of RUR the robots have conquered the world and are in complete possession. No humans are left but one man. This scene — excellently lighted as it was — expressed something of the elation of the robots as well as something of the horror of human extermination.

● Throughout its years of existence the Little Theatre of Westminster College has held as its aims: promoting the appreciation of drama, freedom of expression, understanding of theatre techniques, and interest in the drama as a lasting avocation. Each season's program consists of five or six productions for which the students are sponsors, and in which all are privileged to participate, according to their ability. The past season has included ROSSUM'S UNIVERSAL ROBOTS, ICEBOUND, THE TORCHBEARERS (ACT II), THE FINGER OF GOD, OVERTONES, TOWN HALL TONIGHT, TRIFLES, MURDER IN THE TOWN PLAYERS, SUCH A CHARMING YOUNG MAN, THE WANDERING SCHOLAR FROM PARADISE, AND THE DARK LADY OF THE SONNETS. Of these, THE TORCHBEARERS, and ICEBOUND, were sponsored by Masquers, honorary dramatics fraternity.

● While the Little Theatre finds it difficult to accommodate both audience and play in its diminutive quarters, this handicap is almost offset by the enjoyment of financial sponsorship and an interested and generous audience.

● In the small picture at the top of this page we have Mr. Miller, Mr. Bower and Miss Murray as they appeared in The Torchbearers. To the right is another shot of Icebound with Misses McCown, Heintz and Mackey and Master Davidson on the stage.

The HOLCAD

• FOUNDED IN 1884 •

THE NEWSPAPER OF THE
WESTMINSTER STUDENT BODY PUBLISHED EACH WEEK OF THE COLLEGE YEAR.

• VOLUME 53 •

THE HOLCAD is published in the interest of Westminster students, and is governed and censored only by the tastes of its readers, and the limitations imposed by decency and common sense.

- Working on the assumption that an honest newspaper is the most effective medium for the dissemination of student, faculty and administration ideas and attitudes, and that those in charge of such a publication are honor bound to use all their ability in making the paper as interesting and worthwhile as possible, the 1935-36 HOLCAD strove to live up to the following platform:

- 1—THE HOLCAD should be of vital need to everyone in Westminster by affording complete campus coverage and by being made interestingly "readable." (In other words, the HOLCAD must be "sold" to its readers before it fulfills the remainder of its platform.)

- 2—THE HOLCAD should work for a greater understanding and co-operation between students, faculty, and administration.

- 3 — THE HOLCAD should aid in the revival of "student spirit."

- We have been criticized for not limiting our aims to such specific things as a new library, improved curriculum, higher scholastic standards, etc., but it is our sincere belief that such specific achievements are dependent on understanding, co-operation and enthusiasm, and can never be obtained without them.

● Royce, Royce, the linotype man.

- Technically the paper was improved this last year, as shown by the National First Class rating it received, the highest ever attained by this 52 year old newspaper. Though the editors are certain that the technical improvements have been appreciated and that the reading content has been bettered, it remains to be seen if the goal is in the process of being attained.

Avalon LeMonte.

NEWS BUREAU

• The two gentlemen to the left--- Messrs. Biggs and LeMonte---are directly responsible for the fact that Hogtown Family Journal announces that "Jim Jams, local boy, is making good at Westminster College. Recently one of the Professors spoke to him." In short, these two gentlemen are the News Bureau.

HANDBOOK

• Douglas Smiley, Phi Pi Phi, and James Ewalt, Kappa Phi Lambda, were the Editor and the Business Manager, respectively, of the 1935 Freshman Handbook. This book, given to each Freshman, is alleged to guide the poor green things into the life of the school.

CONVENTION

• Above is a view of the Convent on Hall of the Westminster Mock Republican National Convention held at Westminster Gymnasium on April 20-21-22, 1936.

• Graham Carter, Kappa Phi Lambda, was Permanent Chairman of the Convention.

THE FIRST Westminster Mock National Convention was sponsored by Tau Kappa Alpha, honorary debate, and was held on April 20, 21, and 22, 1936. The convention had four sessions, during which it adopted a platform, and nominated a president and vice-president.

- Graham Carter, who was afterwards permanent chairman, took charge of the opening session and introduced Senator Reed, keynoter, who panned the New Deal in the fiery style later showed by the Republicans at their convention in Cleveland.

- Attorney T. V. Mansell of the History Department who was the faculty adviser for the convention.

- This is another view of the convention hall during the heat of the meeting. One wonders where all the flags came from.

- State Senator George L. Reed keynoter of the convention.

- Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons were devoted to the formulation and acceptance of the platform, and on Wednesday evening the highlight of the convention was reached with the nomination of candidates for president and vice-president. Herbert Hoover was nominated for president, and Alf Landon was nominated for vice-president. Mr. Hoover soon cast Westminster predictions to the wind by refusing to be nominated at the regular convention---the rat!

ACTIVITIES

DEBATE SQUAD

• First row: Ewalt Booth,
Coach Tener Gerstner, Harris. Second row: Offensend, Isenberg, Shear,
Henderson Chamberlain, Christy.

PRE-MED CLUB

• First row: Birch, Allen,
Fisher Holm, Abraham.
Second row: Goodchild,
McGeorge Jablonski.

STUDENT COUNCIL

• Calvert Barrett, Arrow-
smith, Snyder, Forsman
Cone.

SENATE

• First row: Russell,
Greenough, Rumbaugh,
Scott, Black. Second row:
Ihsen, Donson, Donaldson,
Hamilton, Miller, Schoenhofen, Cone.

• The single outstanding characteristic of the Student Council during this last year was that they seemed to spend a great deal of their time organizing and reorganizing. However, they did some good work in securing much-needed vacations for the over-worked college students.

• The Senate is that body of girls who are most able to make the Westminster co-ed squirm. If and when a co-ed violates one of the rules presented to her in a little blue book with the compliments of the school, she is hauled before the Senate for a reckoning, and woe be unto her if she is guilty.

- The Y.W.C.A. meets every Wednesday evening during the school year. This organization is also an extremely active one and it includes most of the girls of the school among its membership.

- The Y.M.C.A., which holds its meetings every Wednesday evening during the school year, is the most virile of the religious organizations on the campus. It should be complimented for having a stronger appeal to the men of the school than any of the other organizations.

YWCA

- First row: Sloan, Johnston, Stewart, Scott, Semple, Nevin, Boyd. Second row: Donaldson, Stevenson, Hamilton, Miller, Metzler.

YMCA

- Hogg, Ewalt, Christy, Ralston, Mulholland, Henderson, Rogers.

KARUX

- First row: Rush, Mulholland, Rogers, Ewalt, Hogg.
- Second row: Henderson, Butler, Kane.

YPCU

- Hogg, McAmey, Miller, Ewalt, McGill, Mulholland, Henderson.

• Karux is the organization for young men who have designs on the ministry. It is under the leadership of Dr. John Orr, and seems to be somewhat of a guiding organization for its members.

• Y.P.C.U. meets every Sunday evening in the First United Presbyterian Church. Its membership is composed of both men and women. It follows each year the study of a series of subjects, moral and religious, which are planned into one unit.

• W.A.A. is an active athletic association on the campus. You will notice from the picture that it seems to be composed of women, and indeed it is. It is under the leadership of Miss Nandeen Love, women's athletic director. The Mermaids is the sister organization of the W.A.A., and is designed for girls who prefer water to land sports.

• Block "W" is the honorary organization for those young men who have won Westminster letters on the floor, field, or court. Once or twice each year it sponsors a dance.

WAA

• First row: McGee, Jackson, Morrow, Nevin, Love, Metzler, Johnston, Rumbaugh, Charles. Second row: Lorimer, Brindle, McNab, Smiley, Scott, Holland, Semple, Ihsen, Irons. Third row: Mack, Boyd, Barrett, Hamilton, Freeman, Heintz, Nevin, Wagner, Cone.

• The Girls' Glee Club is the group of white-robed, sweet-voiced misses who perform each Christmas at the candle-light service. It is under the direction of Miss Ada Peabody.

• The A Cappella Choir is under the direction of Professor Allen B. Davis. This organization sings in public several times throughout each school year.

- The Westminster College Band has a double duty: not only must it furnish music for the athletic contests, but most of the time it must furnish the excitement and cheering also. This double duty makes it an important body.

- The Orchestra, under the direction of Professor Donald O. Cameron (who likewise directs the band) ordinarily presents concerts during music week in the school year.

BAND

VARSITIES

VARSITY tennis met with fair success this year at Westminster. Of its 11 matches it won 6 and lost 5. Again, for the third year, Bob Grier, Junior, was captain. His running mates were Ray Elliott, Earl Wright, Bob Maxwell, John Suciu, Alex Brincko, Kenny Grubb, and James Regester. Suciu, Brincko, Grubb, and Regester took turns at the fifth position on the team, Maxwell was fourth, Wright was third, Elliott was second, and Grier was No. 1 man.

• Below we have a snap of one of Westminster's varsity tennisers in action against an opponent.

• Jack Hulme, Jack of all sports, who this time appears as coach of the Tennis and Golf teams.

• The prospects for next year's team remain very good, with Grier, Elliott, Wright, Maxwell, Suciu, Brincko and Grubb all coming back. Just as for the other athletic endeavors the Argo and the student body thanks the athletes for their untiring work on field and court.

• Tennis Schedule: May 6, Allegheny at New Wilmington; Westminster: 4-3. May 8, Bethany at New Wilmington; Bethany: 4-3. May 9, Muskingum at New Concord; Muskingum: 5-2. May 11, Slippery Rock at New Wilmington; Westminster: 5-2. May 15, Geneva at New Wilmington; Westminster: 5-2. May 16, Washington-Jefferson at Washington; Wash-Jeff: 6-1. May 20, Allegheny at Meadville; Westminster: 4-3. May 21, Case at Cleveland; Case: 5-2. May 23, Slippery Rock at Slippery Rock; Westminster: 5-4. May 25, Bethany at Bethany; Westminster: 4-3. May 26, Waynesburg at Waynesburg; Waynesburg: 3-4.

• To right: Ben Maxwell, who combines a deep backswing with a fast swinging tennis racquet.

- Golf Schedule: May 5, Allegheny at Meadville; Allegheny won the match. May 15, Waynesburg at New Wilmington; Waynesburg won the match. May 18, Geneva at New Wilmington; Geneva won the match. May 22, Geneva at Beaver Falls; Geneva won the match. May 26, Waynesburg at Waynesburg; Waynesburg won the match.

- As can be seen from the above, Westminster's Golf Team lost all of its matches this spring. The team was composed of two veterans: Dave Kennedy and Jim Ramsey, who were Numbers 1 and 2 respectively; and of two new men: Reed McCaskey and Jack Laraway. Kennedy, who was one of the ranking golfers of the district will be lost to the Titan squad by graduation.

- In the panel below we have: Kennedy, No. 1, golfer; Ramsey No. 2 man; McCaskey, No. 3; and Laraway, No. 4. These are the gentlemen who represented Westminster on the links during the spring of 1936.

- Dave Kennedy, No. 1 golfer, who is lost to the Titan team by graduation.

INTRAMURALS

THERE was a stiff race in the Intramural mushball league this past season, but when the Delts suffered a defeat at the hands of the Kaps, the TUOs were able to carry off the crown.

- The Phi Pi's captured the tennis crown, and, being heartened, immediately set about repairing their coveted tennis court, presumably for next spring's encounters.

- During the year the TUOs won five intramural victories, the Delts three, the Phi Pi's two, and the Non Frats one. This crowns the TUOs as the intramural champions of the college.

- Below we have two shots of mushballers as they engage in Westminster's most popular spring intramural sport.

• Ralph McGeech, Westminster intramural player, illustrates the service in tennis, as she is did.

WOMEN'S INTRAMURALS

RIDING, Mushball, and Archery comprise the great portion of girls' intramural spring sports. The young ladies have the privilege of using the horses from the college stables located back of the TUO house. They use the field on the quadrangle just south of the main building for mushball, and archery is practiced on the football practice field. Outstanding characteristic of the spring program is the enthusiasm which the girls show for the sports.

• The young ladies, too, play mushball, and here we have one of their games.

• They rather have it over the men in that they have regularly conducted riding classes, and seem to take a great delight in the sport. Here we have a group of the delighted.

• Archery is a sport confusing to us, though we know not why. Only to the girls. They receive vast turnouts of girls each spring when the sport is announced. We wonder if the girls are prone to being stupid?

A Word to the College Graduate . . .

The supplying of electricity to the American people is a public service in the fullest sense of the word. The college graduate, contemplating a career in this industry, must recognize this fact. Success can come to him in this field only by his subordinating personal interests to the greater interest of the public in requiring adequate service at low cost under every possible condition.

to the Graduates of Westminster!

Your completion of four years of hard, tedious work is a real achievement. The G. C. Murphy Company congratulates you, and wishes you every success.

Our Belief Is:

The Foundation of Success Is Service

"He is paid most who serves best" is true in every field of endeavor. The size of a company alone does not determine its service to a community, but SERVICE to a community alone determines the size of a company. Likewise, the service an individual renders to his fellow men will determine his place; the real measure of his SUCCESS.

The G. C. Murphy Co. is earnestly striving to be of service to the student body of Westminster.

Wholesome confections, delicious lunches, soda fountain refreshments, fine quality hosiery, stationery items, ladies' and misses' wear, men's and boys' wear, and a multitude of other every day necessities—all priced to suit the student purse, is our every day service.
